

Arriving by Car

You can drive to the PSI via Brugg or via Baden.

Via Brugg:

From Brugg, first follow the signs to Koblenz. After driving through the hamlet of Lauffohr and going up a slight incline, fork left in the direction of Remigen/Villigen; then bear slightly right to Villigen. About 1 km after you have left the village of Villigen, you will see PSI West on the right hand side. PSI East lies over the bridge on the River Aare.

Via Baden:

From Baden, follow the signs to Koblenz (via Siggenthal), driving through Obersiggenthal, Untersiggenthal and then Siggenthal Station. After the traffic circle at the sports field, continue in the direction of Koblenz. After about 1.5 km, turn left for the PSI, as indicated by the signs. This brings you to PSI East. Take the bridge over the River Aare for PSI West.

Arriving by Train

Brugg is on the SBB line from Zurich to Basel/Bern. You can take the bus from the station at Brugg. The Brugg – PSI – Böttstein – Döttingen route will bring you to the PSI in just under 20 minutes. Timetables are available at SBB Travel Online: www.sbb.ch

Arriving by Air

There is an SBB railway station at Zürich/Kloten international airport. From there, you can travel to Brugg via Zurich-Hauptbahnhof (main station), and then take the bus (see Arriving by Train).
